 - Will neighbours be notified of upcoming projects on someone's property?
A homeowner, concerned about the possibility of a permit being issued for work on a property adjoining hers, was assured that if she wished to state an objection, she would be notified after the paperwork was filed and the consultation process was opened. (March, 2023, Informer – January, 2023, Council meeting) ??If the project respects all the bylaws, should neighbouring home owners be notified?

One resident stated that he has failed to see any concrete examples of how MADA is making life any better for the senior citizens in the Town. Councillor Feeney responded that this group had created a very ambitious plan, creating 90 action items, when it was first mandated in 2020. To date it has either completed, or partially completed, over 45 of them. These examples were reviewed at the recent MADA meeting that was open to all citizens and will be the subject of an article published in the Informer.
